Earlier that day, Michael's mom, called Anne, saw her son and Christopher go out together. She was worried because it was the end of the afternoon and Michael didn't come back. She called Michael's best friend called Harry.

She told him she saw Michael and Christopher go but they didn't come back. She was worried.

After that, Harry went to see Christopher, he was in his house. Harry asked him « where is Michael ? His mom was worried. » Christopher said he went for a jog and didn't see Michael today. Harry knew he was lying because of Anne's testimony and the way Christopher reacted was suspicious because his hands were shaking and he looked uneasy.

To him, there was enough evidence, he was convinced that his friend was the murderer. He went to see the police officer and told him all he knew. After listening to that, they went to Christopher's house and arrested him.

Because of the pressure, he admitted him crime. He said he was reserved, not popular and weird at school and his friend Michael was popular, so he was jealous of him. After learning that, Anne became downcast and grieving.

Christopher had his trial and was sentenced to twenty years in jail. The dead body that was found was Michael...
